Great Showing

This year's Varsity Volleyball team had an excellent season, losing only 3 games and finishing 3rd in the league, just missing a chance at State. The team will have to recover from the loss of 3 Senior starters who all helped the team to their success this season. Graduating are Venus Patton, Alicia Johnson, and Cheryl Kundert. Also leaving the team is Tammy Trenholm Manager/Score Keeper, who gave the team loads of moral support through the season.

This years J.V. Volleyball team showed a lot of spirit throughout the season. Though the girls had a long loosing streck at the beginning of the season, they never let that get them down. The J.V. team had a large turn out of freshman which will help next years team. Mr. Scott, said, "All the girls worked really hard, and I'm very proud of them."

Coach Les Charles''summer basketball program gave the freshman the chance to know the other players before they get to high school. It made their transition much easier. He feels that his summer program took the pressures off the new players, therefore reducing some of the edge other teams might have on them.

Monroe may have lacked depth at the beginning of the season, but all the girls worked together so well that they were always a complete team. The team had Cheryl Kundert the leading Trico scorer last year, as a starting forward. Cheryl worked especially hard this year at finding the open person. Braidy Crowson, will be a starting forward in the 1985/1986 season. Coach Charles moved her to that position to take advantage of her shooting ability.

Layle Billings will play pivot and Coach Charles fells she will be an inside threat. Linda Dixon started at point guard, and was responsible for getting the offense going. Michelle Crowson rounded out the starting five, also played point guard. She has improved confidence and good shooting ability comment ed Coach Charles.

Monroe girls accomplished a goal of being the best team Monroe has ever had. Coach Charles feels that his team had a good year despite the final game with Crow.

Coach Charles contributed much of the teams' success last year to the community for their support at the home and away games. Everyone associated with the team would like to thank the community for all the support they provided.

Under the leadership of first year coach Jack Wise, the Monroe Wrestling team fought an uphill battle to retain their position as a board approved sport for Monroe Union High School. It was thought that the wrestling program, along with the cross country team might be cut for "cost effective purposes and low turnout."

At the end of public discussion the board voted to retain wrestling under the condition that a safe practice area outside of the school could be found.

Parent John Ball summed up the feelings of wrestling supporters when he said, "I have two young men involved in wrestling and I've seen changes in them both... it gives students discipline and a drive to keep their grades up."

Junior Seth Brown led the Wrestling Dragons as their captain and team leader. He has been wrestling for three years, and aided Coach Wise with the younger, and less experienced wrestlers. The young team made up for what they lacked in experience, by showing determination and dedication to the program. Coach Wise is expecting and even bigger turnout for the 1986/1987 school year. He feels that Monroe can return to the strong program and position it held several years ago with continued support.

The team had four graduating seniors, Eric Ball, Steve Ball, Brian Fortmiller and Shaun Ramirez.

Plans for the rebuilding of the team include refinishing mats and building up interest in the team.

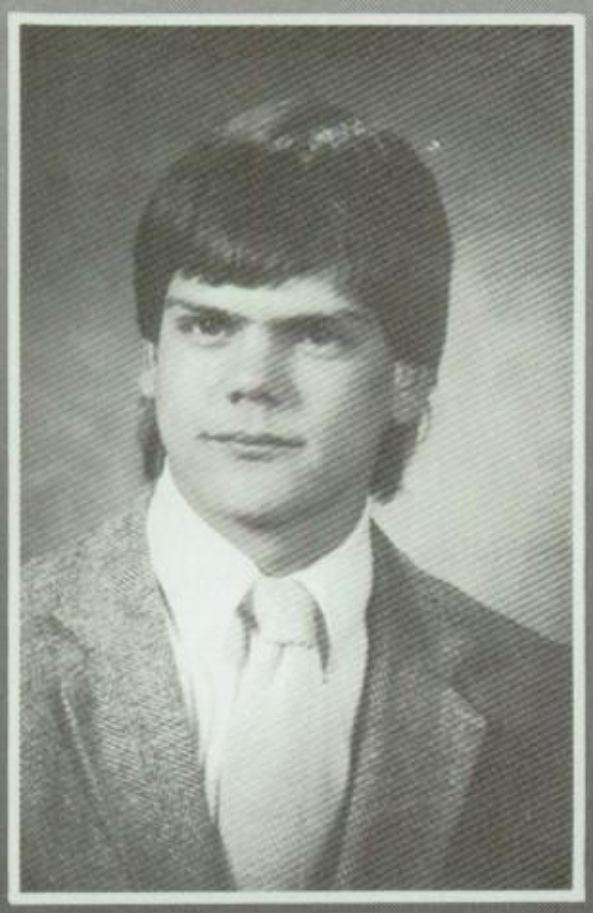
Monroe High produced a fine bunch of athletes during the winter sports season.

Boy's Basketball had such fine athletes as Ted Horning, Lee Sutton, and Scott Barnts. All three of these young men contributed much more then just their outstanding athletic skills. Each contributed of themselves to help others, in the game of basketball.

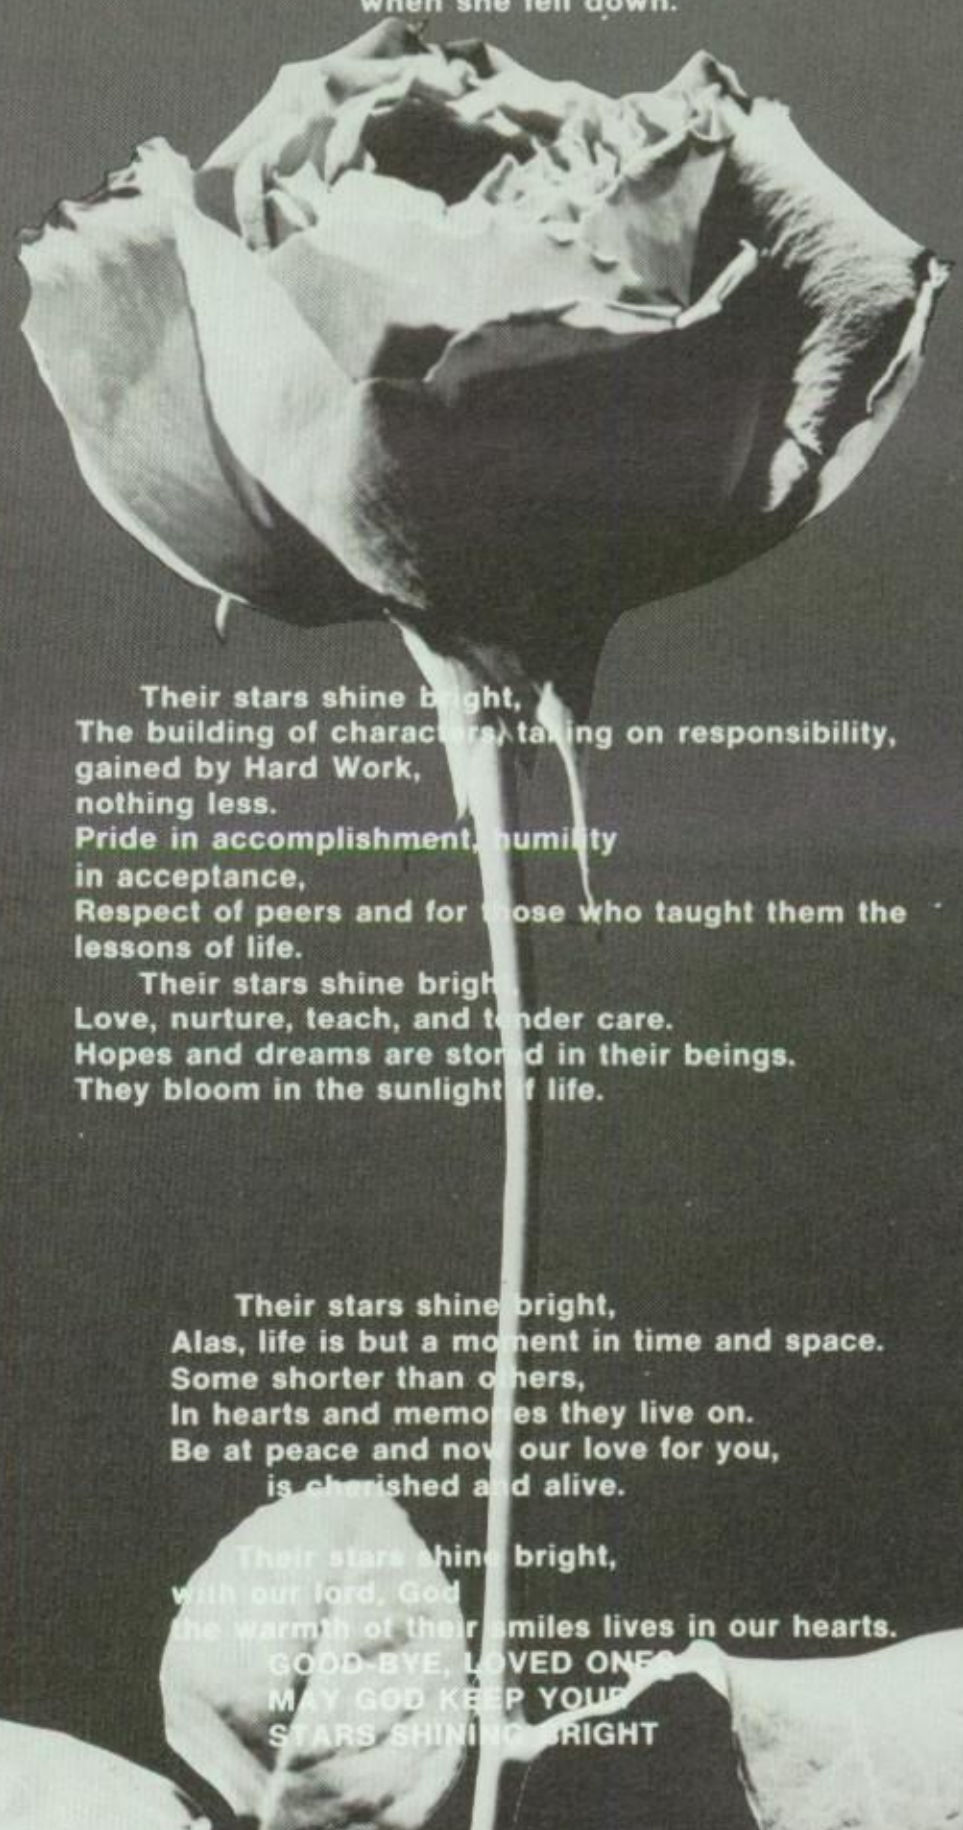
When you speak of Girl's Basketball at M.U.H.S. three names come to mind Cheryl Kundert, Linda Dixon, and Layle Billings. Cheryl Kundert has contributed skill, determination, ability, and flair to the high schools basketball team in the last four years.

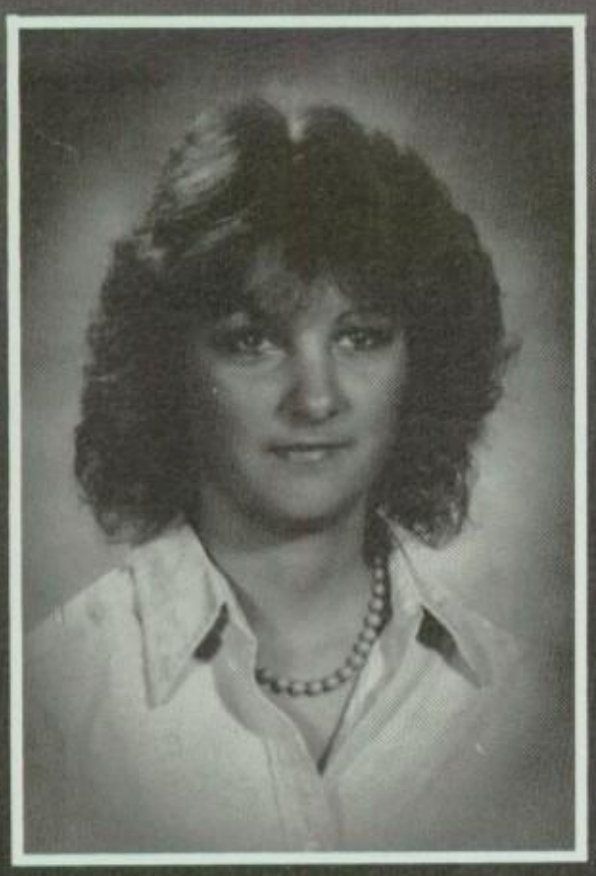


SHINING STARS

His star shines bright with us,
In our hearts the warmth of his smile.
Patience for a child and his questions.
Time for an old man's story and wise words.
Care and support for a friend in need,
impatient to grow up.
His star shines bright,
Talent, ability, intelligence and grace cherished,
developed, fine tuned,
The thrill of competition,
confidence to win.
The beauty of athletes in motion.

Her star shines bright,
Her flaxen hair flies in the wind,
as if going to another world.
Her face was so gentle,
with curves of beauty,
Her eyes were so deep,
you could see her life in them.
She gave love to so many people,
and she made them so happy.
They all felt a loss,
when she fell down.





Their stars shine bright,
The building of characters, taking on responsibility,
gained by Hard Work,
nothing less.
Pride in accomplishment, humility
in acceptance,
Respect of peers and for those who taught them the lessons of life.
Their stars shine bright,
Love, nurture, teach, and tender care.
Hopes and dreams are stored in their beings.
They bloom in the sunlight of life.

Their stars shine bright,
Alas, life is but a moment in time and space.
Some shorter than others,
In hearts and memories they live on.
Be at peace and now our love for you,
is cherished and alive.

Their stars shine bright,
with our lord, God
the warmth of their smiles lives in our hearts.
GOOD-BYE, LOVED ONES
MAY GOD KEEP YOUR STARS SHINING BRIGHT

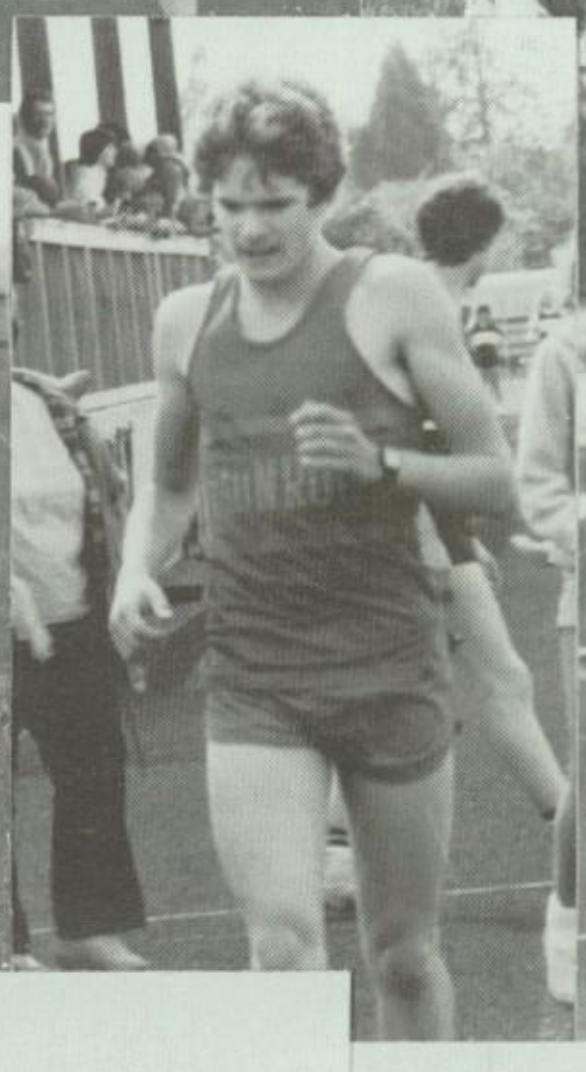
The highlight of this year's track season was a strong showing at district and state competitions. Defending district champions Layle Billings in the javelin and Braidy Crowson in the discuss, Cheryl Kundert in the 100 and shot, Bart Charles in the shot all had strong showings and competed at the state meet. Rodger Bates Mark Cumer, and Clinton Harris coached this year's teams. Monroe hosted three home meets and showed strength especially in the field events.



CONCERT CHOIR

Mr. David Whitacker led both the high school and grade school choruses.

The chorus practices for concert.

The high school choir performed many times for the community and school students durin the school year. Especially memorable were two concerts of pop hits performed in school assemblies during the last month of school. Many members of the chorus performed solos. The chorus was accompanie by the band.

1986 PROM

This year's Jr./Sr. Prom was held at the Hult Center in Studio One, Eugene, Oregon on April 12,1986. About 100 people attended the event and danced to the music provided by "Centerfold." It started at 8 o'clock and ended around 1 o'clock the next morning.

The Prom Court was traditionally made up of four senior girls and their escorts. They were: Princess Tammy Trenholm and Escort Ted Horning, Princess Venus Patton and Escort Bob Conn, Princess Dawn Wolcott and Escort Scott Ballard, and Queen Kim Freeman and King Lee Sutton.

DRAMA CLASS

A student in the Drama Class can expect to do many different things. One day you might be given a topic and told to act it out. Another you parade around as whatever animal Ms. Gaskill, the teacher, picks out.

As a class, Drama attended the Dramafest and did a short act during the winter play. Something big they did was work in tandem with choir and band to perform a concert.

The 1985-86 edition of the Associated Student Body government had several goals for this school year. They were to improve the leadership of the students in school activities, to improve the fiscal capability of the student body, and to improve the relationship of students with the administration.

In meeting these goals the Council which represents the policy making branch of the student government met at least once each month, drafting legislation that opened the student store, consolidated student body accounts, and addressed the issue of improving relations between students and the administration.

All in all, it was an extremely productive year of growth and accomplishment for the government. I'm extremely proud to be associated with the students who have served as members this year.

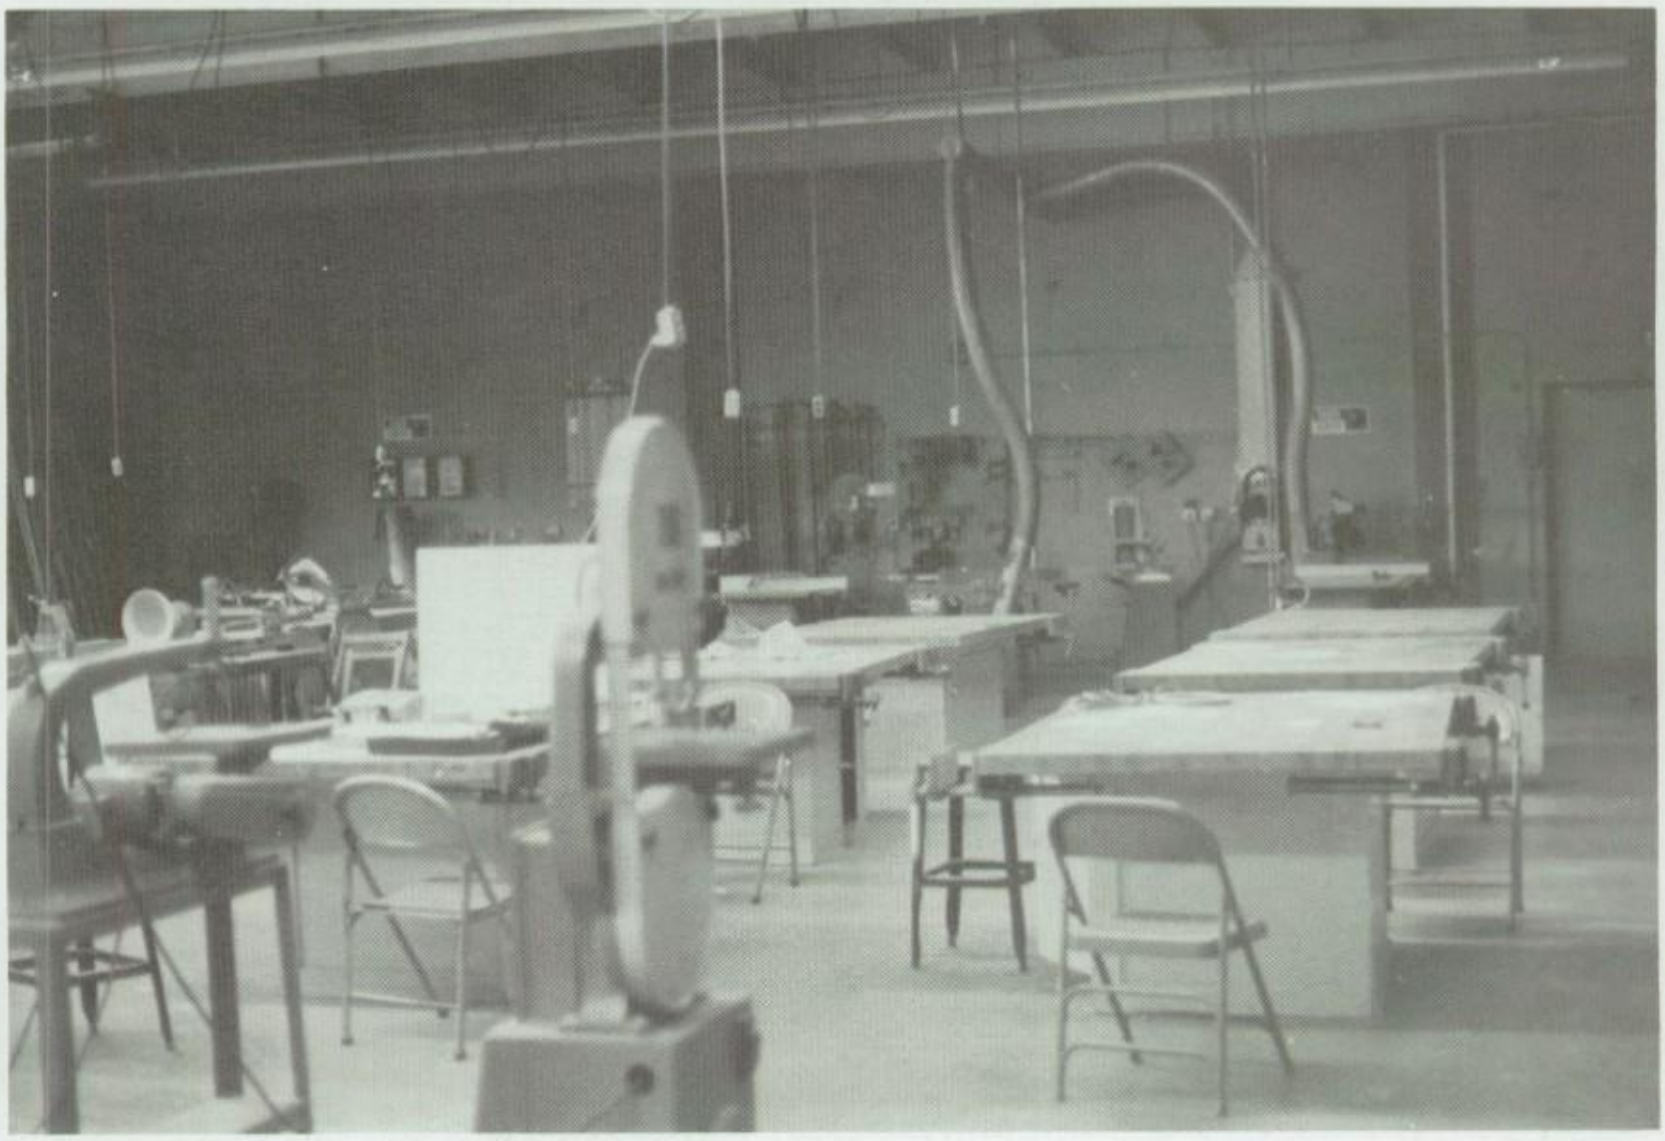
SHOP CLASSES



The wood working section of the shop

Mr. Eugene Stemmann and Mr. Tim Loika shared the job of teaching the industrial arts classes.

Mr. Stemmann taught Advanced Woods, Shop II, Career Math, Welding, Small Engines and Power Mechanics. Mr. Stemmann stressed working with others in all of his classes, but also taught the importance of working with others.

Mr. Stemmann established a foundation for a future club. The club is Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, V.C.I.A. as it is known is an international club that young people between the ages 14 and 22 years old who participate in 88 different categories, from Home Economics and Refrigeration to Nursing and Machine Tool Technology. There are local and regional competitions and also a national competition, if a student places first at regionals. At nationals, students take several tests that are timed and are graded on accuracy, ability to identify tools and equipment and ability to make or produce an object in a certain amount of time, with as little error as possible.

Mr. Loika taught ShopI, Building Trades, Arts and Crafts, Drafting. Mr. Loika's Building Trades class participated in building several projects around M.U.H.S. They built a bench by the Senior/Junior Hall which is used daily. They also added a display cabinet by the Library entrance and a notice box outside of the north doors. In the fall, Mr. Loika's Building Trades class also took part in the framing of a house for Bobby Conn's parents.

Thank you both for improving M.U.H.S.

Going to math or computer class is unlike going to any other class at M.U.H.S. Mr. Scott tries to provide a relaxed atmosphere for the students in his class. His classes always give you a chance to catch up on your sleep or the latest gossip.

Mr. Scott has tried and has accomplished being more then just a teacher. He has become a friend and trusted staff member that students go to.

Cook's morning classes of Home Ec I, Home Ec II, and Advanced Foods all participated in a very successful playschool, that was held in the Home Ec room. The children of the Monroe area were her classes ginny pigs. They enjoyed painting, playing with building blocks, bubbles, running outside and of course each other.

Mrs. Cook's classes also participated for the second year in selling cook books. The treat for all their hard work was a trip to the Pendleton Woolen Mills and Clakamas Town Center. At Clakamas Town Center students enjoyed ice skating and shopping.

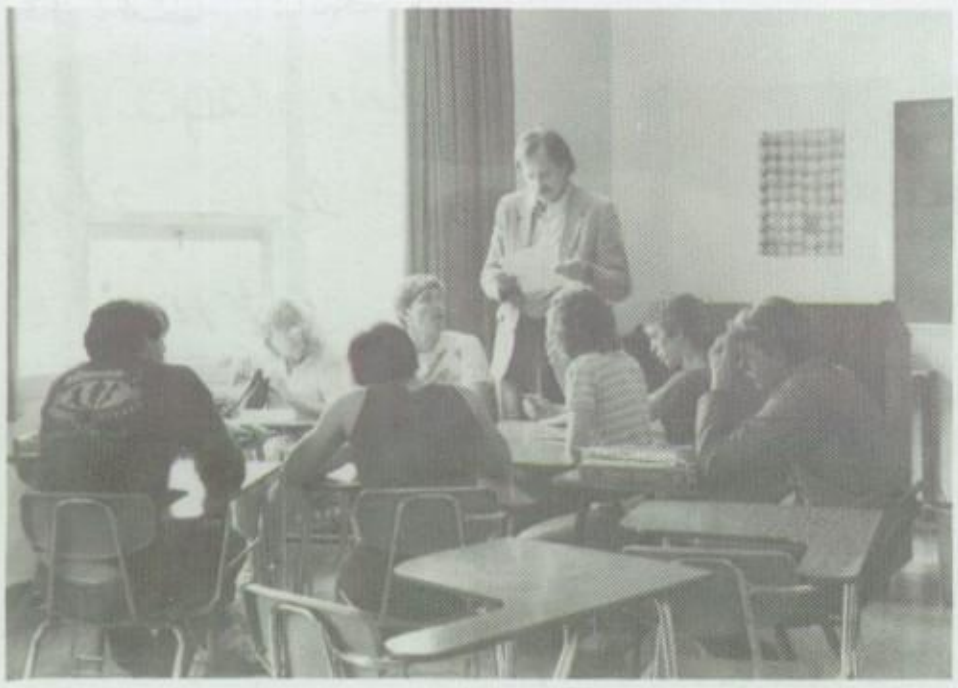
Journalism
Yearbook Advisor

This year, journalism class was taugh by Mr. Gholson. The classes' main activity consisted of producing the "Dragonian", our school paper. They had to construct layouts as well as write stories and edit them.

One day a week was spent going over articles taken from the newspaper. They studied the lead sentences, writing styles, and the method used by the authors. Mr. Gholson felt that by analyzing these articles, his students would gain a better knowledge of writing.



Designing and writing the yearbook is a project which begins the first day of school and lasts up to a week after school ends. It involves the efforts of a few students who are willing to photograph, write, and layout 120 pages which become the history of M.U.H.S. Each student is assigned several pages of the yearbook which they are responsible for. At times, the work can be frustrating and hectic. Attending several school functions, developing prints and writing stories on deadline can make the class exciting. In addition, the staff is responsible for a large budget in selling and preparing ads.

English

r. Bill Gholson taught English I, II and IV, rnalism, and was advisor to the yearbook. r. Gholson brightened his classes with his at sense of humor. Mr. Gholson's English I. sses studied the elements of novels and d several short stories. English II classes te daily journals and read several novels h as "Lonilness of a Long Distance Runner" "Seperate Peace". English IV concentrated on developing better writing skills, including the writing of a research paper.

Mr. Gholson's 6th period English II class, had two room helpers. Mrs. Foster and Mrs. LaRue helped in the instucting of proper English writing skills.

Carroll,

I'm really glad that we've become really good friends. You're a special person and our friendship means a lot to me. You know that I'll always be here if you need someone to talk to you know I'll always be there for you. I hope you find somebody special because you deserve someone really nice, thats not going to fuck you over. I can't believe this is my seni year. I'll come down and see ya when I can and you better either call me or at least write me. That is if I don't live at home. I hope me and him get together, it would make me really happy. Were gonna have to party lots this year and you better come to our senior party. It's going to be a blast. Well we've had a lot of good-time so far with no bad so lets keep it that way. You come to my shop to get your hair cut and I'll even give ya a discount. Well don't party too much without me next year. Well I'm running out of room so I better jamm!

Social Science

People of the World

The Social Science classes all had a lot of student participation in them this year. Ms. McGourty, Mr. Rogers, Mr. Mark Nortness, and Mr. Craig Frasier all shared the teaching responibilities.

Ms. McGourty and Mr. Nortness taught Global Studies to a group of unique Freshman. Global Studies is the general study of the earth and the people of the earth.

Mr. Rogers taught U.S. History, to Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. U.S. History is a class designed to give the students a better understanding of the country they live in. It takes an in depth view of the American system of government, World War I and II and the many treaties the U.S. has with other countries. Mr. Rogers always made his classes fill with laughter and deep discussion with his stories and interpretation of the U.S. History.

Mr. Frasier taught Western Civilization, Oregon History, Government, Economics, Personal Finance, Psychology, and Sociology.

Western Civilization is the study of the middle ages and what the U.S. gained from this very important time. Oregon History takes a look at the people who settled the Oregon Territory, their trials and tribulations, and the personal stuggle that they went through. Government, studies the U.S. Constitution, the laws and foundation of early U.S. Government. Economics, studies the economic systems of the world with a special focus on the U.S. Economic system. The Psychology and Sociology classes busily made up questioniares and distributed them to the students and staff at M. U.H.S. Their findings were used to determine what people like and dislike and their views on the issues.

All of Mr. Frasier's classes were required to submit a book report and a term paper covering a subject area ot the term. Most students found these projects harder the the whole terms work.

Thank you all for making us understand the people and things around us.

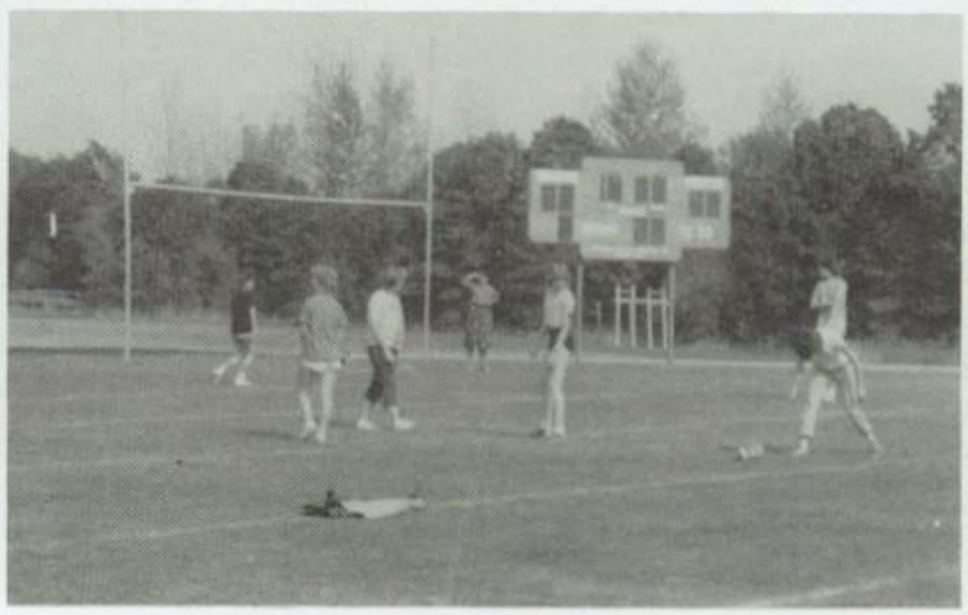
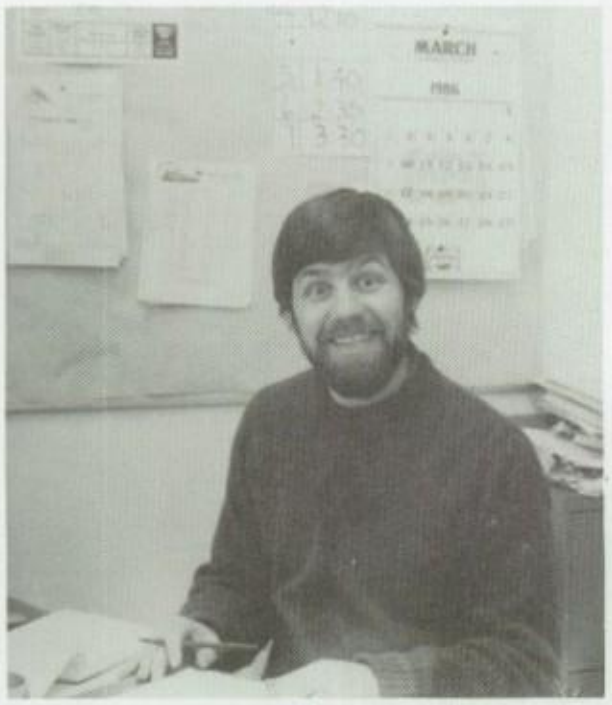
This year, the physical education classes were taught by Ms. McGourty and Mr. Rogers. Proper techique and fundamental skills were stressed as well as the importance of physical exercise in daily life. Some of the activities the students took part in were volleyball, aerobics, frisbee football, basketball, soccer, and softball.



BUSINESS ED.



Business Education was taught by Mr. Greg Holstrom. Business Ed. is a series of classes that include Typing I and II, Accounting, and Business Math. These classes are designed to help students gain a better understaning of the business world and better prepare them for the market place.

Mr. Holstrom's classes participated in a Trico League Business Skills Contest at Waldport High School on April 16, 1986. Special recognition to Caroll Roberts who placed 1st in Typing I, Alysia Thompson 2nd in Typing I, and Mark Foster 2nd in Business Math. Congratulations to all.

Miss Tresa Henderson and Miss Maggie McGourty shared the responsibility of teaching the sciences this year at M.U.H.S.

Ms. McGourty taught Physical Science, which is a Freshman Science. In this class they studied the earth and its atmospheres.

Ms. Henderson taught Biology, Physics, Anatomy, College Biology, and Natural Science. Her classes were filled with questions from students and a lot of notes. She added flair with occasional Hi-Qs. Ms. Henderson's Biology class had lots of fun disecting sharks and bats. This project lasted for one week but the odor lasted forever it seemed. The students enjoyed finding the animals stomach, liver, heart, cornia and several other body parts not seen externally.

BACCALAUREATE

Baccelaureate was held Tuesday, May 27 at Bellfountain Christian Church in Bellfountain, Oregon.

Baccelaureate is the traditional religious service for students soon to be graduated from high school. It is a time for reflection about past, present, and future plans by the graduates and their parents. The service provided a time for the graduates and their parents to reflect for a few moments upon the seriousness of graduation and to ponder some deep questions about the graduates' place in the world.

The service is held before the actual graduation ceremonies.

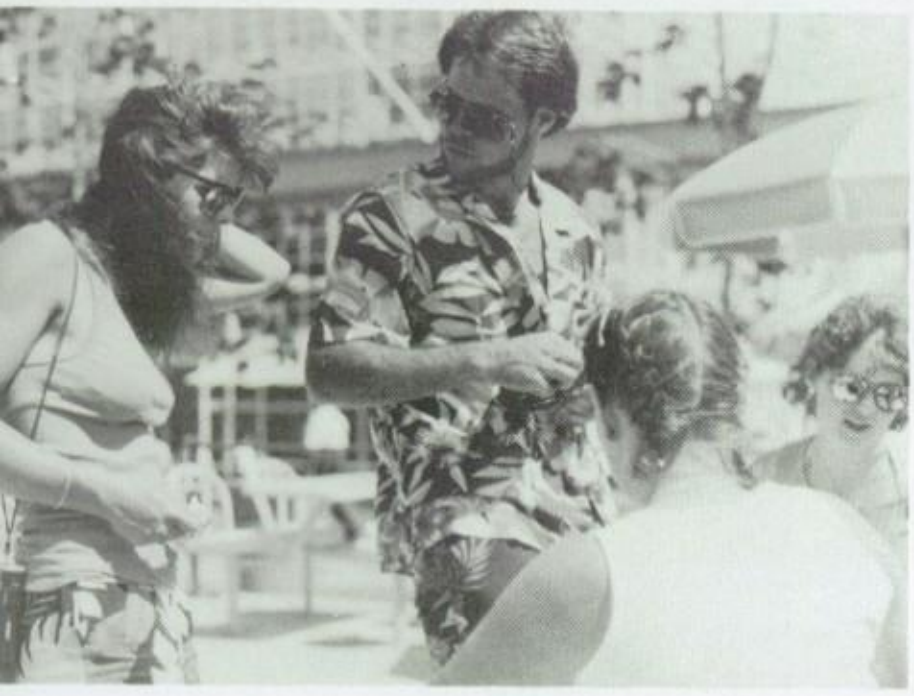
GRADUATION TRIP
"EXPO-A GREAT TIME"



I don't care, Venus, I am not under any ircustances going back up to that stupid arachute drop." "Please Lee...just for e"?

Linda Dixon in one of her poses for the camera.

The 1986 graduates were given a free trip after graduation to Expo '86 in Vancouver, British Columbia.

The trip was a three day excursion by bus to the "once in a lifetime" World's Fair. Students left Thursday, May 29 soon after the graduation ceremony. They traveled by chartered bus to the University of British Columbia, where they stayed during the three day trip. During the day, students rode rides such as the parachute drop, roller caoster and log slide. Others visited the many booths decorated by states and countries.

Most students had a fantastic time and said they would like to go back because there was too much to see in just one trip.

At least one student, who will remain nameless, said he would go back if he didn't have to ride the parachute drop again.

The trip was organized by the Parent Volunteer Group. Various parents, who did not have children in the senior class attended the trip as sponsors. The effort to raise the funds for the trip required the efforts of many volunteers who worked tirelessly at fund raising activities throughout the year.

The effort of the Parent Volunteer Group will long be remembered by the 1986 graduating class and shows the results of a community of parents who care about the youth of Monroe Union High School.

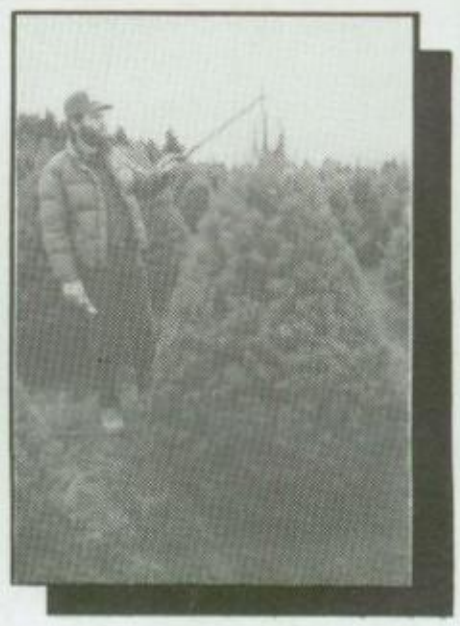
Our Success Is Growing. . .

We Know What You Want

Many people try their hand at this business, but few have lasted as long as we have. Monroe Tree Farms has been growing Christmas trees for more than thirty years, and because we deliver fresh clean trees, we will be around to serve you for a long time to come.

Dedication To Quality

At Monroe Tree Farms, we sell only what we grow. And we only grow Christmas trees. Each year we sort through 3,500 acres of trees and select only those that are well-shaped and healthy. We harvest by helicopter to cut handling time in half, to keep our trees clean and undamaged, so we can deliver to you a fresh unbroken tree.



Service Is Our Specialty

We ship mixed loads by rail or truck. No order is too large. Choose from six species: Douglas Fir, Scotch Pine, Noble Fir, Grand Fir, Blue Spruce and Concolor. Trees are half the business, the other half is you. So call or visit, we are proud of what we have to show you.
